Grand Piano Appeal 2019

A NEW PIANO FOR CONCERTS, RECITALS AND ARTS EVENTS IN TRURO

Truro 3 Arts, as one of Cornwall's most prominent Music Societies, has for over seventy years promoted an annual programme of concerts by major national, international and local recitalists. In recent years those performances have been generously hosted by Truro & Penwith College, who now join the Society in presenting this public appeal to provide by the end of 2019 a NEW GRAND PIANO at a cost of around £30,000.

The new instrument, to be permanently based at the College, will be played at T3A concerts and will be available for use by teachers, lecturers and advanced students.

The Society and the College have secured more than half the total needed for a piano of concert standard, but over £12,000 remains to be found. Individual donations and charitable grants will be warmly appreciated (please see Form overleaf).
